

Rhonda Brown joined the Georgia Mountain Players two years after its founding. She has loved being part of the Players and feels it has been a privilege. Her acting career started at the age of forty upon a dare from her husband and a chance to spend time with her children who were also acting. One of her favorite roles is "Miss Hannigan" from Annie, which she has played 3 times. As a school teacher, she says she is a natural for the part. Her favorite roles with the Players have been "Lucy" in You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, "Truvy" in Steel Magnolias, and of course, "Miss Mildred" in Smoke on the Mountain.

Involvement with acting led to directing. She really enjoyed watching her visions being "born" on stage. Her favorite part of acting has been being able to enjoy the same passion with her husband Cleve. Their three wonderful children got them started. Now their children are married and starting their own families. It has been and is a wonderful life! God Bless!
